

italian, should he be elected,' and if anybody can make any authoritative prediction on that point in advance of the situation or circumstances requiring the President to act, the person so-enabled is in possession of a valuable piece of information which it is impossible he should long keep to himself.

"He had further told this correspondent that 'there is every reason to believe that while upholding the position he has taken he (the President) will manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the question involved in his message,' meaning the so-called retaliation message. His (Lord Sackville's) authority for that expression of opinion could be found in the American press at large, and the (Minister) cannot conceive how he could have justified his words to himself, or could have escaped the just censure of the people of this country at large, had he (the Minister) presumed to tell up any position he had taken on a grave question, or that he would approach such a question in any other than a becoming spirit.

"THE LETTER FROM POMONA."

"The letter of Lord Sackville's correspondent, while professing to see in the last conduct of President Cleveland much to commend, nevertheless, in his concluding remarks, holds the views and opinions set out in the letter, expressed a fear that partisan exigency might lead the President, in case of his reelection, to do certain things that the writer would not approve. Inasmuch as (Lord Sackville) was not in possession of all the facts, he was compelled to learn for himself, whether the President would or would not do the things represented by his correspondent, he deemed it proper and sufficient to remind the latter that what he said must therefore be made for the political situation.

"In estimating the value and meaning of the rhetoric of the campaign editor and orator, the Minister does not understand that the popular leaders in America, any more than any other place, are in the habit of or used to giving to their political cause account or a performance of all that they may happen to say or promise in the heat of a political canvass, and hence his soothing reminder to his anxious correspondent.

"A SUSPICIOUS DOCUMENT."

"The letter to Lord Sackville, which elicited no written reply, came from one of the editor's written pages of the paper, and your correspondent could not refrain from imparting to the Minister his suspicion based upon the matter and form of the letter—that it was a fraudulent and deceptive communication designed to entrap him into some verbal expression that could be turned to the disadvantage of one of the candidates for the Presidency.

"The idea had not occurred to the Minister of any such purpose in the letter, but he admitted the possibility of the suggestion, and he concluded to take it seriously into consideration, in the absence of any proof that his correspondent was other than the sincere and conscientious person he held himself out to be in his letter.

"DIDN'T SEE IT IN THAT LIGHT."

"The Minister declined to permit your correspondent to see the letter for publication unless and until the consent of the writer can be obtained, or his bad faith, as suspected, established.

"The inscription of the word 'private' upon Lord Sackville's letter was explained by him to be the ordinary mode of distinction adopted in the letter to his personal character from those written or signed by him on the business of the legation.

"Minister West said he would have cheerfully given his consent to the publication of the letter, if the topic of writing a letter had not occurred to those concerned in its publication. He understood from what was said in the letter to which he was replying, that his answer would be shown to other persons than the recipient of the letter; consequently it was addressed to me, the editor, in order to give me a privilege to let the letter to Pomona substantially what he should have told him at Beverly had he (Lord Sackville) been called upon there.

"VIEWS OF PROMINENT MEN."

"After leaving the British Legation the Examiner correspondent called upon such of the more prominent Democratic Senators and Representatives who remain in the city to secure an expression of their views regarding the writing of the letter. Among those seen were Senator McRae of South Carolina, Senator Louisiana, Senator of Alabama and Cockrell of Missouri, and Representatives Tracey of New York and Wheeler of Alabama.

"The Examiner correspondent found that each general was disposed to indicate the assent that any political importance could attach to the matter.

"A NEW YORK CONGRESSMAN."

"Representative Charles Tracy of the Albany (N. Y.) district said: 'It seems scarcely credible that an American citizen would write to the British Minister for his advice in the matter of voting in this country. I do not think that it is surprising that the President is inclined to do anything but uphold the position he took in his message. To that retaliation message and the bill which the House of Representatives passed on the 10th of October, with reference to the attitude of the citizens, will refer when desiring to inform themselves on the attitude of the President. We know that the bill has been hung up in the Senate, and that the Republicans oppose it, and the Senate is to vote against the passage of the bill in, by his action, endangering our peaceful relations with a friendly power. I have been amazed that the Senate dared to refuse to pass the Retaliation Bill, and it is not surprising that our people should be indignant at the fact that the publicans have taken a stand, relating to the combined British and railroad pressure. The publication of this Sackville letter, I doubt not, is designed to draw attention away from the humiliating course of the United States, and to distract the mind of the bold and stately speaker.'

"A SENATOR FROM LOUISIANA."

"Senator Gibson of Louisiana said: 'I see no inappropriateness in the letter. In it Mr. West expresses his belief that the Administration will manifest a spirit of conciliation in dealing with the questions at issue between the United States and Great Britain and the people of Great Britain. Surely no administration will approach the settlement of an international question in a spirit of hostility. I believe if the Republican party were in power they would meet the differences of our two countries in a like spirit of conciliation. It would be undiplomatic, it would be simple madness to do otherwise. But I don't mean to imply the administration of Grover Cleveland would sacrifice our lot of Americans right or fail to insist upon their due and full recognition. The time is past when intelligent Americans can expect our relations with foreign governments to be controlled by appeals for the votes of any class of our citizens. In respect to our rights as a nation, we are all Democrats, and we are all Republicans. It is sheer folly for any Republican to attempt to make capital out of our relations with any other country against Grover Cleveland. He is as good an American as ever stood in shoes, and he is as good a man as ever stood to meet and treat with all countries in a proper spirit, but ready to invoke the power and all the resources of the people to defend their rights on land and sea.'

The "Examiner's" editorial opinion, "A DIPLOMATIC FREAK," San Francisco Examiner, Oct. 24th.

"The letter which the British Minister at Washington has been decoyed into writing to a politician of Pomona, Los Angeles county, should interest his recall. The substance of the letter is as follows: Although that President Cleveland and the Democratic party, while upholding the national rights, desire to preserve friendly relations with Great Britain and with all the rest of the world, is an obvious truth. We should be sorry to believe that any party would causelessly embroil us in war. In fact, the Republican Senate, by refusing to give the President the retaliatory powers he requested, has displayed an amicable spirit that quite overshadows its former belligerency.

"But a letter that would be proper and convenient under the circumstances, and sometimes becomes of slight importance when sent as the advice of a foreign minister, and is supposed to take no cognizance, official or personal, of any division of our people into parties. The interests he is here to guard are the interests of British subjects, not the interests of America. When the pleased Briton, Pomona wrote, for advice as to his vote, the Minister should have replied that he had nothing to do with American politics, and had no counsel to offer American citizens, and had no counsel to offer every party in England demands its recall.

"To interfere in the politics of the country to which he is accredited is the unpardonable sin for a minister. It was this that drove General West almost involved in his letter, expressing a fear that partisan exigency might lead the President, in case of his reelection, to do certain things that the writer would not approve. Inasmuch as (Lord Sackville) was not in possession of all the facts, he was compelled to learn for himself, whether the President would or would not do the things represented by his correspondent, he deemed it proper and sufficient to remind the latter that what he said must therefore be made for the political situation.

CAMPAIGNING.

HOW "POLITICS MAKES STRANGE BEDFELLOWS."

Organization of the Hit-and-Run to Make Their Influence felt—Strange Motives of the Prohibitionists—The Piece-club Racket.

In less than two weeks the voters of this city and county will be given a chance to cast their ballots for national, congressional and county officers. There is but little more time for work, and the local candidates are on the dead jump from place to place, and they are making more noise than a whole pack of coyotes. Some of the Democrats have attached to themselves the hoodlum element of this city, and if they are not mighty careful they will defeat themselves on this very line.

The mugs and gamblers are strongly organized, and it is a well known fact that they are working in the interest of the Democratic party.

They organized some months ago and have spent a great deal of money in the interest of the Democratic party, under a promise made by the local managers of the party to stand in and protect them.

"Piece-clubs" are always tangled up with the law. If however, they are on guard these fellows break the law every day if they are allowed to carry on their peculiar business.

It is true that there are not over 50 of them in the city, but there are a lot of them, and they can control 200 and 300 votes, and besides they are always ready to spend from $500 to $1500 on any election that effects them.

Now the Democrats have used these people. The Democratic officers have been bitten right and left by these same lawless vagabonds, and whenever honest people vote for Democrats in this city, they may make up their minds that they are voting in the interest of the lowest and most sly creatures that were ever allowed to crawl on this footstool.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

These people are also working in the interest of the Democratic party and why? They are naturally the real back-bone of the saloons, and they naturally attract the lowest elements of the community. Now, if we can draw votes enough from the Republican ranks to elect Democrats, we will soon convince the Republicans that they can have a respectable government, unless they stand by us and give us what we want. We want all saloons closed, and our only chance is to whip the Republicans into that way of thinking."

This may be good policy, but as soon as the saloons are closed, the men who are standing in together, the respectable element in the Democratic party will flock to the Republican party, and then there will be but two parties—a party of honest men, and a party of the exact opposite.

PEACE CLUES.

This city is overrun with adventurers who want money and they don't care how they get it. They call themselves politicians, but they are nothing but petty frauds. They have worked themselves out of the two old parties, and every day one hears of a new party. It may be the Conglomerated Sons of Guns, or the National Bound-inversors' Party, or the Anti-Chinese immigrants.

About a dozen of these fellows get together, rent a room, put out a big banner announcing the name of the party and its headquarters. Then the smooth-tongued gang comes around and works the saloons. "We had a rousing anti-Chinese party meeting this evening," the saloon will blurt out as soon as he gets into the editorial room. He never comes until about midnight, and no one thinks of him. So the saloons have many questions, so he rattles on and succeeds in getting a favorable notice about his "big meeting," when the chances are there were not over three or four present, and they were holding down some beer talk during the entire time. The imaginary enthusiasts speeches were delivered.

As soon as the workers have thoroughly "done" the press they pick out the most gullible candidates on both tickets, and a committee of smoothies waits on them. The head-snob's little speech goes something like this:

"Mr. Blank, our party will hold a convention in a few days. Oh, yes; we intend to put a complete ticket in the field, but we can't find a single man for the office you seek, although there are many who would be fit for a place on the ticket; but we would rather have you, and if you will help us out with a little money we will see that you are elected."

The gal puts up his money for the fakers to take a buona on. And so the round of candidates is done up in the most approved style, and the piece clubs flourish.

TIE AND TRACK.

The Santa Fe Capturing the Raisin Train.

The Southern Pacific people are having a mighty hard time of it to keep up with the Santa Fe in the freight business of Southern California.

The Santa Fe has captured a large share of the general business of this end of the State, and this year they are shipping the entire raisin crop. Col. Williamson Dunn has taken personal charge of the business, and has worked up such a trade that he is sending special rail-train every other day. Yesterday a special of 21 cars pulled out for the east.

The bean market is just beginning to open, and before yesterday three carloads left for New Orleans.

Four new switch-engines arrived from the yard for San Pedro Pacific day before yesterday, and are being prepared for the track in the workshop.

Yesterday 150 empty freight cars left this city for San Pedro, to be filled with coal from ships now in the harbor. The coal will be used by the Southern Pacific.

Delightful Reception.

(Delayed Report.)

A most delightful reception was given Tuesday last at the Sanitarium near LaManda Park. The occasion was the celebration of the first anniversary of the opening of the establishment. From 3 to 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon the numerous friends, with special enthusiasm, responded to the invitation, through the spacious reception-rooms. Here they were received most cordially by the hostesses Dr. Sarah L. Shuey, and Miss Treat, whose reputation in the medical world is well known.

British gold received at par. Apply at the coarse and brutal counting-room.

CLEVELAND cannot win without New York. And Cleveland will not get New York.

It will soon be time to count the votes. Don't forget that those votes are to tell for or against honest labor.

They do say that First street is to be paved immediately, if not sooner. We hope so.

The commercial agencies report that business is picking up throughout the country.

Of 150 persons naturalized in Boston one day last week 125 were British Americans.

Or the nine German daily newspapers which are supporting Harrison in Ohio, six supported Cleveland in 1884.

INDIANA Democrats have declined to contribute to the fund for the punishment of election frauds. Of course they have! They don't want to cut their own throats.

CHICAGO storekeepers who laid in a big stock of bandanas are willing to sell them at a big reduction, as the number of Old Romans seems to be extremely limited.

It is now about time for the Sacramento Record-Union to claim that the publication of the Sackville-West letter by THE TIMES was a scheme to boom Southern California real estate.

The Trombone congratulates its readers upon the fact that they are intelligent and able to correct its errors of orthography and grammar. They probably can, but they may object to being worked to death.

We have been favored with a sample copy of Willman's Express, published by Helen Willman, at Chicago, the object of which is to show that nobody need get sick or die unless they wish to. They will do it, though. They are to be constantly stubborn.

The Sensation of the Hour.

The letter of Lord Sackville to a Pomona correspondent, first published in the LOS ANGELES TIMES of Sunday last, is the sensation of the hour. For the benefit of those of our readers who have not followed the developments in this latest Anglo-American question, we publish today, in compact form, the documents in the case, together with comments which have been elicited by the same. This includes the letter from the now celebrated Pomona man; Lord Sackville's reply; the long dispatch from Washington to the San Francisco Examiner, giving an interview with the British Minister and comments of prominent Democratic statesmen; the editorial opinion of the Examiner that Lord Sackville should be recalled, and of the New York Sun that he should be given his passports, and comments of the London press on the occurrence.

Our readers, more especially those of Democratic proclivities, will undoubtedly find in this matter some very interesting reading.

At a large political gathering in New York last night, Mr. Blaine read the letter from the Pomona man, and embellished it with a number of caustic comments, showing that the efforts of the Democrats to make voters believe that England does not favor Cleveland have been proved to be false by the letter from the British Minister. Mr. Blaine discussed the subject at considerable length, and his remarks elicited loud applause.

An Unfortunate Remark.

"I have no use for any man who wears the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic." The above remark is credited to Victor Montgomery, our correspondent at Pasadena also states that Health Officer McAllister says "there have been no deaths during the present month from typhoid fever in that city or vicinity, and that at present half a dozen cases can be found in that city or within five miles of it." The statement published in THE TIMES was made on the authority of residents of Pasadena. The matter will be investigated and the true facts arrived at, if possible.

THE PASADENA UNION denies that typhoid fever is prevalent in that city, stating that there are not five cases within a radius of five miles of Pasadena, also that there is not a single case in the city. Our correspondent at Pasadena also states that Health Officer McAllister says "there have been no deaths during the present month from typhoid fever in that city or vicinity, and that at present half a dozen cases can be found in that city or within five miles of it." The statement published in THE TIMES was made on the authority of residents of Pasadena. The matter will be investigated and the true facts arrived at, if possible.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY will use a portion of the immense loan it is now floating to push work on the coast route between Templeton and Santa Barbara. When finished this will be used as the main line, and the San Joaquin Valley road will become a branch. The new route will be a much pleasanter trip than the present one.

MARTIN AGUIRRE, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, is brave, faithful and intelligent—three essential qualities in a good Sheriff, and qualities which are not every day found in combination. Mr. Aguirre is a man who has been tried and not found wanting. He will do credit to the office to which he will undoubtedly be elected.

THE TROMBONE published the Sackville-West letter yesterday, only four days after it was first given in THE TIMES. But then, the letter had, of course, to go through the "California-Associated-Press-Copyright-1883" mill before the "Bone" could use it. The "Bone" is picked, and is a bare fraud.

IT IS A FORTUNATE THING FOR LORD SACKVILLE THAT HE IS THE FIRST, IF NOT THE ONLY, MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS WHO SETS THE GATE OF ELECTION FRAUDS OPEN, AND I WILL SHOW YOU THE ONE THAT MEANS TO DRIVE CATTLE THAT WAY."

"There is not a community where the Republican party is in the ascendant where any man may not advocate without fear for political belief."

"There is a wise selfishness; it begins at home, and he who has the care of his own family first, of the place in which he lives and the men of the nation, whom he is a citizen, is wise in his generation."

"IT IS FOR THE GOOD OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY THAT LOYALTY AND FIDELITY TO THE FLAG SHOULD BE HONOURED."

"THE DAY WHEN MEN CAN BE DISFRANCHISED OR SHORN OF THEIR POLITICAL POWER FOR OPINION'S SAKE MUST HAVE AN END IN THIS COUNTRY."

"FIND ME THE PARTY THAT SETS THE GATE OF ELECTION FRAUDS OPEN, AND I WILL SHOW YOU THE ONE THAT MEANS TO DRIVE CATTLE THAT WAY."

"THERE IS NOT A COMMUNITY WHERE THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS IN THE ASCENDANT WHERE ANY MAN MAY NOT ADVOCATE WITHOUT FEAR FOR POLITICAL BELIEF."

"THERE IS A WISE SELFISHNESS; IT BEGINS AT HOME, AND HE WHO HAS THE CARE OF HIS OWN FAMILY FIRST, OF THE PLACE IN WHICH HE LIVES AND THE MEN OF THE NATION, WHOM HE IS A CITIZEN, IS WISE IN HIS GENERATION."

"IT IS FOR THE GOOD OF THE WHOLE COUNTRY THAT LOYALTY AND FIDELITY TO THE FLAG SHOULD BE HONOURED."

"THE DAY WHEN MEN CAN BE DISFRANCHISED OR SHORN OF THEIR POLITICAL POWER FOR OPINION'S SAKE MUST HAVE AN END IN THIS COUNTRY."

"THE GATES OF CASTLE GARDEN SWUNG INWARD. THEY DO NOT OPEN OUTWARD FOR ANY LABORER SEEKING A BETTER COUNTRY THAN THIS. THEY SWING INWARD, DEPENDS UPON THEM WHO THEY ARE HONOR TO, BUT THAT MAN IS MOST HIGHLY DECORATED WHO HAS THE REGARD AND AFFECTION OF HIS FRIENDS."

"THE MILLS BILL ABOLISHES THE DUTY OF TWO CENTS A POUND ON FIGS. WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE SWEETMUSSETT VARIETIES NOW IN THE STATE, THE CULTURE WILL SOON BE AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY IN CALIFORNIA AS THAT OF THE RAISIN GRAPE. THE INDUSTRY DESERVES ENCOURAGEMENT."

THE ENGLISH PRESS IS STIRRED UP OVER THE LETTER FROM THE BRITISH MINISTER, PUBLISHED IN THE LONDON TIMES, AND BRITISHERS ARE HUNTING UP THEIR ATTACHES TO SEE WHERE THE BLAWSTED COUNTRY IS, Y' KNOW."

THE FINAL SURVEYS OF THE NICARAGUA CANAL HAVE BEEN COMPLETED. IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT THEY ARE MORE FAVORABLE THAN EXPECTED, AND THAT CONSTRUCTION WILL BEGIN IN DECEMBER. THE DEMOCRATIC HOUSE HAVING REFUSED INCORPORATION TO THIS GREAT UNDERTAKING, WHICH SO VITALLY INTERESTS CALIFORNIA, A BILL FOR

AND NOT INTENDED FOR THE PUBLIC EYES. THE BOSTON JOURNAL THEREFORE EXPLAINS THE PUBLICATION:

WHEN THE HERALD'S ACTING MANAGER, TO WHOM THIS LETTER WAS ADDRESSED, RECEIVED IT, HE NO MORE THOUGHT OF PUBLISHING ITS CONTENTS THAN OF COMING OUT FOR HARRISON AND MORTON, BUT JAMES J. GRIND BENEATH HAD PAPERS AND ARTICLES FROM SOUTHERN STATES, AND IN ONE OF HIS INSCRUTABLE MODES ORDERED THIS LETTER TO BE PRINTED IN A PROMINENT POSITION ON THE HERALD'S EDITORIAL PAGE. IT WAS DONE. MONDAY MORNING THE HERALD CONTAINED THE LETTER. TUESDAY THE HERALD CONTAINED THE LETTER. THE HERALD'S EDITORIAL PAGE WAS A CRUCIAL ARTICLE WITH THE EXACT ATTITUDE OF THE JAUNTY ASSURANCES OF A MONTH OR TWO.

IT REALLY SEEMS AS IF THERE WAS SOMETHING LIKE A PANIC AMONG THE DEMOCRATIC POLITICIANS IN NEW YORK STATE. "IT WAS A MISTAKE FOR CLEVELAND" TO RAISE THE TARIFF ISSUE, "CONFESSES THE HERALD'S CORRESPONDENT. THE PRESIDENT WAS TOLD THE SAME THING BY SOME OF HIS BEST FRIENDS, WHEN HE WROTE HIS FREE TRADE MESSAGE. HE THOUGHT HE KNEW BETTER, BUT HE PROBABLY KNOWS, BY THIS TIME THAT THEY WERE RIGHT. NEW YORK IS THIS YEAR IRREVOCABLY LOST TO THE DEMOCRACY.

Cause of the Cry.

THE SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER, VOICING DEMOCRATIC SENTIMENT, IS CALLING OUT FOR THE RECALL OF SIR SACKVILLE-WEST, ON THE GROUND OF IMPERTINENT MEDDLING WITH OUR POLITICAL AFFAIRS. BUT THERE IS NO CRY ON THE PART OF THE DEMOCRACY OF "HANDS OFF," ADDRESSED TO ENGLAND, FOR HER INSUFFERABLE AND OUTRAGEOUS INTERFERENCE IN THE AFFAIRS OF THIS NATION, MANIFESTED IN HER CONTRIBUTING $1,000,000 FOR THE RE-ELECTION OF PRESIDENT CLEVELAND FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

ANYTHING WHICH HAS A TENDENCY TO DEGRADE THE MASSES ENDANGERS THE SAFETY OF THE REPUBLIC. FREE TRADE HAS THAT TENDENCY. IT WOULD MAKE OF THE LABORER A MERE SERVILE TOILER, AND LEAVE HIM NO TIME AND NO MEANS FOR SELF IMPROVEMENT AND ADVANCEMENT. SINCE THE INTRODUCTION OF THE PROTECTIVE SYSTEM INTO THE ECONOMY OF OUR GOVERNMENT THERE HAS BEEN AN IMMENSE GROWTH IN OUR MANUFACTURES AND COMMERCE, AND THE EARNINGS OF LABOR HAVE ENORMOUSLY INCREASED. IT IS PROTECTION THAT HAS UPHELD OUR INDUSTRIES; THAT HAS FILLED OUR DEPLETED TREASURY, AND THAT HAS MADE US GREAT AND PROSPEROUS BEYOND ANY OTHER PEOPLE.

THE DEMOCRATS AT THE EAST ARE NOW CLAIMING CALIFORNIA FOR CLEVELAND BY THREE TO FIVE THOUSAND MAJORITY.

THE WASHINGTON STAR SAYS:

"NOTWITHSTANDING THE GREATLY INFLUENTIAL POSITION OF THE STATE, IT HAS BEEN ACQUIRED BY THE EXPENDITURE OF A POLITICAL CAMPAIGN, AND JUDGE THURMAN'S PORTRAIT IS TO BE SEEN EVERYWHERE. IF THE DEMOCRATS DO NOT SUCCEED, IT WILL NOT BE BECAUSE THEY HAVE NOT TRIED HARD ENOUGH."

THE REPORTS OF THE DEMOCRATIC ENTHUSIASM EXISTING IN THIS STATE INCREASE AS THE SQUARE OF THE DISTANCE INCREASES.

NEW YORK CITY HAS BEEN DECLINED AS THE SITE OF THE STATE CAPITAL, AND IT IS PROBABLY THE LEAST DESIRABLE OF ALL THE POSSIBLE LOCATIONS.

eral Notes—Personal.

PASADENA, Oct. 25.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The report that typhoid fever is epidemic in Pasadena, with over fifty cases now on hand, is entirely untrue. The Board of Trade met in special session today to take action on the same. An Associated Press dispatch was sent out denying the report; also giving a letter from Health Officer McAllister stating that during the present month there has been no deaths from typhoid fever in this city or vicinity, and that at present not a half a dozen cases can be found in Pasadena, or within five miles of it. Very few places in this country the size of Pasadena are as healthy. The information was reported in Los Angeles by residents of Pasadena. We give the denial, and will report the facts as they develop.—ED. TIMES.]

PASADENA CLUB DEFEATED.

A fair audience attended the second game between San Bernardino and Pasadena clubs. The playing was not of the highest order, although the visitors did better than the local ball-tossers, who seemed to have an off-day. The defeat will probably do them good. It was a day of kicking and accidents. The boys from "San Berdoon" understudied like kink, even the pumping they brought them up. Mr. Johnson of this city taking his place the balance of the game. The work of Katz, Lohman, Goldstein and Decker was very good. Score, 6 to 3 in favor of the visitors.

The Democratic inhabitants expect to have a big time next Monday evening.

A meeting to consider the water question took place in the Council chamber this afternoon.

LETTER TO THE TIMES.

The Nebraska Bourbon "Idee."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] The appended clipping is taken from the Omaha Herald's editorial column of the 14th inst. This paper is of the genuine bourbon type, is the leading Democratic paper of that prosperous high-license State, Nebraska, and is owned and edited by Congressman McShane.

Please reprint it for the benefit of those good people who are Prohibitionists from sincerity and honesty of purpose, as well as for the political misfits who vote that ticket through hatred of the Republican party, and oblige a NEBRASKA REPUBLICAN.

"It is claimed by the Republican organ-gangs with the most complacent satisfaction that the Democrats are making no gains among the foreign citizens of the State. While this is not true, thousands of foreign voters will cast Democratic ballots this fall for the first time, there are here and there instances where the exception is marked. In the most friendly spirit the Herald suggests to those unending Republicans of foreign birth—who are always active anti-Prohibitionists—that this is their last chance to make a choice. They can either be Republicans with prohibition, or they can be Democrats without it. Continued Republican ascendancy means prohibition, and that is all there is in it."

SOME SOUDOGERS.

SAN JACINTO, Oct. 22.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I forward to you by mail today as tariff supplement of the Courier-Journal. After scanning this reform document, for campaign use, I do not find in its columns anything in regard to the statement which this editor made when asked what about silver: "G—d—n silver." I suppose this was overlooked by this reform-silver editor.

EDITOR TIMES, I wish to call your attention to the following extracts from this journal: "Democrats, we propose to furnish carpenters and blacksmiths with cheaper tools, reduce the tax on hammers from 16 to 10 per cent., on saws from 30 to 30 per cent. on anvils from 34 to 25 per cent." "Democrats, we propose to reduce on horseshoes from 76 to 48 per cent."

"Democrats, we propose to reduce the tax on steel rails from $17 to $11 per ton." "Democrats, free salt." How will reduction of duty on hammers, saws, horseshoes and anvils benefit the laboring man, when we make better hammers, saws, horseshoes and anvils than they do in England, and for less money with corresponding grades.

ON HIS TRACK.

A Pretty Woman Who Wanted a Man Watched.

All sorts of queer requests are made at the police station for the services of officers, from hunting up a stray dog to looking after a runaway husband or wife. Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock a neatly-dressed, attractive-looking young woman rushed into the office and wanted to know what the charge would be for an officer to watch a man. She did not know just where he was, but gave several localities where he was likely to put in an appearance. Captain Loring, who was on duty, asked her what she wanted against the man, when the young woman blushed and stammered, and answered that while a criminal charge might be preferred, she did not wish to do it, but only to have the man watched, and his movements reported to her. The Captain told her that they did not keep officers for that purpose, but only for criminal business, when the woman remarked that she had better hire a messenger boy, and inquired the way to the best telegraph office. The desired information was given, and the woman scolded off in hot haste to get the boy. She declined to state why she wanted the man watched, where she lived, or any other particulars.
